

3rd Annual eChicago
Symposium 2009

Graduate Schools of Library and Information Science

Dominican University
and The University of Illinois
at Urbana-Champaign

● Present

eChicago

CYBERNAVIGATING OUR CULTURES

Thursday, April 2, 2009
6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Friday, April 3, 2009
8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Dominican University
7900 West Division Street
River Forest, IL 60305

How are Chicago's neighborhoods connecting to digital tools?

Is everyone getting connected? Who's working at it? Every year at eChicago, practitioners, policymakers and researchers exchange ideas and find better ways to work together.

Free to all, space is limited. To register:

www.echicago.illinois.edu

Questions to echicago@dom.edu

3rd Annual

Dominican University
and The University of Illinois
at Urbana-Champaign

Present

eChicago

Symposium 2009

Collaborative Partners For This Initiative:

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF LIBRARY AND INFORMATION SCIENCE
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

PLACE
Dominican University
7900 West Division Street
River Forest, IL 60305

DATES/TIMES
Thursday, April 2, 2009 - 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Friday, April 3, 2009 - 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Dominican University
Graduate School of Library and Information Science
7900 West Division Street
River Forest, IL 60305

eChicago Thursday, April 2, 2009 - 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
Friday, April 3, 2009, - 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Keynotes speakers:

- Carolyn Anthony, Director, Skokie Public Library and winner of the 2008 National Medal for Museum and Library Services.
- Steve Jones, Professor and Dean, Department of Communication, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign—internet researcher.
- Matthew A. Zook, Associate Professor, Department of Geography, University of Kentucky—cybergeographer.

You'll Also Hear From:

- Leaders of the City of Chicago's Digital Excellence projects underway in Auburn-Gresham, Lawndale, and Pilsen
- The Cybernavigators working in Chicago Public Libraries
- Ethnic community organizations with digital collections of their unique materials
- Local geeks at work on community projects!
- Digital mappers and eChicago researchers from across Chicagoland

Co-Sponsored by:

- Dominican University Graduate School of Library and Information Science
- University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign Graduate School of Library and Information Science Planning Committee:
- Dr. Chris Hagar, GSLIS, Dominican University (708) 524-6482
- Dr. Kate Williams, GSLIS, University of Illinois (217) 244-9128

PLEASE POST OTHER SIDE
